Part B for March 29

SUBJECT

Disposal of the pattegar family pension of Chitaldrug which was being drawn by Eswaramma Nagathi.

No. 7067-B 18.3.29.
Mr. B. Kasturi Rangappa Naik.

Inform him that there are not sufficient grounds to reconsider the order once passed.

Serial No. 6

Application dated 5-11-1928 from Mr B. Kasturi Rangappa Naik and others of the Chitaldroog Pollegar family praying for a reconsideration of the order passed by Govt regarding the Pollegar pension which was being drawn by Eswaramma Nagathi & which has been ordered for lapse to Govt

1 Their point In support of their contention, that the pension drawn by Eswaramma Nagathi should not lapse to Govt, they have quoted instances, wherein such pensions of deceased Pollegars were not allowed to lapse back

2. The case in question has however been considered at great length & in accordance with the opinion of the Legal Remembrancer the pension was allowed to lapse

3 The circumstances under which the pension was resumed in the name of the deceased Eswaramma Nagathi are noted in S JA file No. 25 & JA 293-1916

Subd for orders.

BJA 3-12-1928

The chief contentions put forward are

(1) That they belong to the ancient & once highly influential family of Pollegars Chitaldroog Pollegars

(2) They as the lineal descendants have a moral claim upon the goodwill & generosity of Govt

4 These may be sent up, if available. Summaries of contentions of petitioners

(3) These pensions are not mere like grants and should not be viewed as such + that they are the nearest relative of the deceased Eswaramma Nagathi.

6. As against the above it is seen from the Fin Member's Note d 4-5-1926 that the pension was sanctd for the benefit of Ranganna Nagathi + Eswaramma Nagathi and that it was not considered necessary to consider the claims of the other members of the family

Serial No. 9

The present petitioners viz; (i) B. Kasturi Rangappa Naik, (ii) B. Parasuramappa Naik, (iii) B. Virabhimmala Naik, (iv) G. Jayaramaswamy Naik, who belong to the Chitaldrug Poligar family have preferred an appeal against the (decision conveyed in G.O: No: 71: 746/S.A 100-27-6 dated 26.7.28, directing the lapse of the pension of Rs 60-0-0 held by a female Eswaramma Nayakti (under the doctrine of lapse, in pursuance of Legal Remembrancer's opinion, dated (18.6.28) and (11.7.28.) These two files. (i) × S.A. 60-25 (ii) × S.A. 100-27 } are put up

10 Their grounds now urged in the petition are

(i) They (petrs.) Controvert the point about their being distant relatives of the deceased Eswaramma Nayakti (vide para 3 of the G.O: dt 26.7.28) and urge that they are near relations as per genealogical tree appended to the petn.

(ii) their family pension (Chitaldrug family) being in lieu of Polepalli lands resumed to Govt: stands on a different footing from other Pollegar pensions in that the doctrine of lapse has never been applied, in the case of their pensions in the past. Several cases are quoted in support of this Contention G, × viz (i) the Case of Kiratta Nath pension. (para 7 of the petition)

H, (ii) × the Case of Parasurama appa's pension. (para 9 of the petition)

P (iii) × Seebakkamma's pension (para 10 of the petition).

Q. (iv) × Siddalingamma's and Basamma's pensions. (para 11 and 16 of the petition.)

These files pertaining to the above cases are traced and put up for reference —.

11 The petitioners accordingly request that the pensions now lapsed or drawn may be revived for being made available to them and also to B. D. Madakari Rao and B. Linjarajaiah — This is for orders and may perhaps be favourably Considered for the following reasons:—

1 (i) that the Pollegar families once prosperous are so degenerate now that ~~they deserve to be shown~~ some Concession to them at the hands of Govt: seems necessary.

(ii) these Polegars who were generously treated in the past may Continue to be treated with Certain amount of indulgence, without enforcing strictness of law. (vide page 11 of the notes of discussion in the file - S.A-125-08)

Hon: I.

(iii) that there has always been a difference of opinion among the Members of Govt: about the devolution of these Pollegar pensions, as discussions in the files just up for reference disclose. [S.A-384-13 (1+9) & S.A-210-21 (1-4) I. S.A-125-08 (1+2)]

13 In paras 1 to 5 of the petition the petitioners describe the history of the Chitaldrug Pollegars and the circumstances which led to the grant of Pollegar Pensions in lieu of their Chitaldrug Pollegat-lands.

14 In paras 6 and 7 they trace their relationship to the last male-holder of the pension of Rs 60 · 4 which has now been ordered to lapse to Govt and state that they are not his distant relatives but were known according to the genealogical tree annexed to the petition their grandfather on the male side was the brother of the last male-holder's father.

15 In the subsequent paras a number of instances are quoted to show that wherever pensioners of the Chitaldrug family (including females) died issueless, their pensions have been distributed as among their Collateral heirs:

16 The petitioners contend that the pensions of the Children of Pallegar Jamindar are hereditary, that their devolution has to be governed by the Hindu Law of Inheritance, that this Law has been applied in all Cases where pensioners (including females) have died issueless and that they should not be ordered to lapse just like service pensions.

17 They pray that the previous orders of Govt. lapsing the ~~Kagathi's~~ pension enjoyed by Easwarama Nagathi during her lifetime, who died issueless may be ordered to be distributed to them and to B. Daddi Malakeri Naik (No 32 in the Genealogical Chart) and to B. Dated Bangalore, 18th November 1878.

Order thereon:- No 140 - G

On the death of Kireeta Naik on the 2nd December 18[illegible] without issue, the late Chief Commissioner held that his nephew Bharmappa Naik whom it was alleged had been adopted by Kireeta Naik, but not with the previous consent of the Government, was entitled only to an allowance from that stipend of Rs.15/- per monsem, that sum being equivalent to the sum - assigned to his younger brothers (sons of Nadiberi Naik) from their father's pension.

2. Bharmappa Naik being dissatisfied with that decision, declined up to the time of his death on 4th March 1878 to receive the stipend of Rs.15/-.

3. Bharmappa Naik left one son, Muregeppa Naik, the present applicant, who has been permitted to draw the stipend of - Rs.15/- from the date of his father's death.

[illegible]

4. The orders passed by Sir R.Meade cannot be disturbed, but on a full consideration of the circumstances of this family and the liberal terms on which the Palegars' stipends have been continued to their descendants, the Chief Commissioner is pleased to direct that the unappropriated portion of Kir ota Naik's stipend, namely Rs.48-9-3, be distributed to the several members of the late Madakari Naik's family in the following manner.

	Per memsem. Rs.	As.	P.
Katappa Naik, eldest son of Madakari Naik.-	8	9	3
Veeratimmal Naik	8	0	0
Lingaraja Naik	8	0	0
Parasurama Naik	8	0	0
Kasturi Rangappa Naik	8	0	0
Bharmappa Naik's son Murgeppa Naik	0	0	0
Total Rupees	48	9	3

The above allowances are in addition to the stipends already granted to them.

5. Mr.Gordon cannot acceded to the request made by Murgeppa Naik for payment to him of the arrears of the stipend undrawn by his father for upwards of three years, but is willing as an act of grace to authorize the disbursement to him of Rs.300/- (Three hundred) this sum being somewhat more than a moiety of the whole amount.

(Signed) Tredway G.Clarke.
Secretary.

To
